point of exam entry and is in addition to the exam entry fees as advertised for your programme.

You must pay the fee for at least one module to be registered with us.

If you wish to pay all the module fees you can make a single payment by selecting all the modules when you first register.

When you pay for a module, you must select the module session in which you wish to study it (this selection can be changed before the module session starts).

factor them in to the overall cost of completing the programme. Using this link, you can find contact details for all our examination centres. The University of London is only responsible for the examination centre fee charged at London centres. You will be charged £87 per sitting when using London examination centres; the fee charged for local tuition (where available) by your teaching institution if you take modules with institution-supported learning; your ACCA subscription as a student, affiliate or member. Your subscription with ACCA must be paid up to date when you register for the programme;

The University is required to add Goods and Services Tax (GST) to certain fees paid by students resident in certain countries. Further information can be found on our web page.

All programme fees shown are net of any local VAT, Goods and Services Tax (GST) or any other sales tax payable by the student in their country of residence. Where the University is required to add VAT, GST or any other sales tax at the local statutory rate, this will be added to the fees shown during the payment process. For students residing in the UK, our fees are exempt from VAT.
