Registration and module selection

You must pay the fee for at least one module to be registered with us.

If you wish to pay all the module fees of the MSc upfront, you can pay the full MSc course fee.

If you are entering the MSc via the Performance Based Admissions (PBA) route, it is not possible to pay the full MSc course fee and you must pay by module (Pay as you go).

When we receive your payment, we will give you a registration date that marks the beginning of your registration period with us.

When the module session starts, you must keep and deadlines for taking examinations and submitting coursework and projects.
