In addition to the Programme Fees payable to the University, you should budget for textbooks (this may well be in the region of £300 per year). You should also budget for tuition costs if studying at a recognised teaching centre.

The University will charge an online examination administration fee of no more than £10 for each examination paper held online. This fee will be charged at the point of exam entry and is in addition to the exam entry fees as advertised for your programme.

The University is required to add Goods and Services Tax (GST) to registration and module fees paid by students resident in certain countries. Further information can be found on our web page.

All Programme Fees shown are net of any local VAT, Goods and Services Tax (GST) or any other sales tax payable by the student in their country of residence. Where the University is required to add VAT, GST or any other sales tax at the local statutory rate, this will be added to the fees shown during the payment process. For students resident in the UK, our fees are exempt from VAT.

Programme Fees may be paid in one of two ways:

either a single payment, covering the registration fee and all module fees for the programme or stand-alone Individual module or the registration fee plus the fees for the modules you select to study in the first year. To complete your registration, you must pay at the same time both the registration fee and the fee for at least one module. In subsequent years, only the fees for any new modules are payable.

Where applicable, you are required to pay the following Programme Fees in full:

The module fee is payable once per module and includes access to study materials and entry into the assessments (written examination, coursework and project, as applicable) associated with the module.

The module fee is determined by the country in which you reside in when you register for each module (countries are classified into two categories: Band A and Band B).

Note: If you choose to defer an examination or need to re-sit an exam, you will pay the module continuation fee (see below).

The module continuation fee is payable when you do not complete a module in the session that you have selected, by the published deadlines, and have to submit or resubmit a coursework element for a module that you have failed;

The module continuation fee includes access to study materials, web-supported learning and entry into the assessments.

The Programme Fees above refer to modules which commence in the October 2023 and April 2024 sessions and are effective from 25 June 2023.

You must have paid your Programme Fees (module and/or module continuation fees) by the registration closing date for your chosen study session.

Details on how to pay your fees are available on the website.

Generally, students whose fees are paid by sponsors will be expected to correspond directly with their sponsor regarding Programme Fees. The University can provide an invoice, if needed, upon request. Materials will not be despatched and VLE access will not be available until Programme Fees have been received.

Programme Fees are subject to annual revision and typically may be increased by up to 5% per annum.
